THANK YOU

We would like to thank all the contact people for their input in getting the schedule finalized. Also thank yous need to go out to Ann Strange for keying in the text and proofreading, to Sharon & Allan Hjerpe (who have not yet left East Tennessee) for layout, formatting and proofreading, and to Terry Faulkner for help with the cover and proofreading.

Our thanks to Jubilee Community Arts, Karan Dotson and Melody Reeves for the keeping and updating of our mailing list, for allowing us to use Jubilee Community Arts as our mailing address, and for publicity throughout East Tennessee.

Many people contributed last year toward the continuation of this newsletter. We now have enough funds to keep it going for about another two years. We would like to thank all of you who are helping to keep our tradition going through this Old Harp Newsletter.

UPCOMING SINGINGS — 1996

EPWORTH OLD HARP SINGING — March 10, 11:00 A.M.

This annual singing at the Laurel Theatre, 16th and Laurel Ave. in Knoxville, starts with singing at 11:00 A.M., then a potluck at 12 NOON and singing again at 1:00 P.M. Come for the day of singing or just for part of it. For more information, call Gideon at (423) 577-2272; Kathy (423) 691-8678; or Terry at (423) 584-3659.

EASTER SINGING — April 7, 5:30 P.M.

This singing, held at the home of Bill Gooch and Meg Mabbs, 4401 Alta Vista Way, Knoxville, starts with a potluck with the singing immediately after. Meg says she is going to prepare herself to lead "Easter Anthem" this year, so everyone at least look at your part. For more information, call (423) 522-0515 to talk to Bill or Meg.

OLDHAMS CREEK MISSIONARY BAPTIST CHURCH SINGING — April 14, 1:00 P.M.

This Sunday singing will be hosted by David Wilson, the preacher at Oldhams Creek. The church is located off Hwy. 441, south of Pigeon Forge. Turn east on King Branch Road and take it to the end. Turn right at Boogertown Road, go about 100 yards, and the church is on the left. For more information, call David at (423) 453-0241 or Veta at (423) 428-1375.

TUCKALEECHEE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH SINGING — April 28, 2:00 P.M.

This singing is hosted by John Wright Dunn and Tom Taylor. It is the closing event for the Blount County Dogwood Arts Festival and Tom usually has dug up more information on this singing, going way back to the annual Odd Fellows Singing at Easter in the 1880s, on the second floor of their lodge in Maryville. Going into Townsend from Maryville on Hwy. 321, turn right where the sign indicates "to Tuckaleechee Caverns." Go about a mile; the church is on the left. For more information, call John at (423) 448-6445 or Tom at (423) 984-8585.

BLACKBERRY FARM SINGING — May 12, 5:30 P.M.

From Maryville, take Hwy. 321-North for about 14 miles towards Townsend. When you see the entrance to Foothills Pkwy. on your right, pass the entrance and the exit. Take the next right onto West Millers Cove Road, following it for about 3.5 miles. Blackberry Farm will be on your left. (See map, below, and look for enlarged maps at singings prior to May 12.) For more information, call Bruce Wheeler (weekdays) at (423) 974-5421. (For directions only, you can call The Inn At Blackberry Farm at (423) 984-8166 or 984-9850.)

OLD COLLEGE SINGING — May 19, 2:30 P.M.

This singing takes place in the Old College Center of Tennessee Wesleyan College, Athens, TN. Last year there were more than 60 singers including a devastating bass section. They moved the singing to the upstairs to be able to include the visitors comfortably (many of whom brought books). There was also time for social contact and refreshments after. For more information, call Carroll Ross at (423) 745-4505 or Sara Hamilton (days) (423) 745-7504.

BEECH GROVE PRIMITIVE BAPTIST CHURCH SINGING — June 23, 11:00 A.M.

This is an all-day affair with a potluck. Shirley Henry turns the church over to the Old Harp singers, represented by Sharee Ann Rich, promptly at 11:00 A.M. There is a feed at 12 NOON and singing again at 1:00 P.M. Heading south out of Pigeon Forge on Hwy. 441, take the first right, onto Caney Creek Road. Go about 2 miles and the church is on the left. For more information, call Shirley at (423) 453-5983.

GALILEE BAPTIST CHURCH SINGING — June 30

UPCOMING SINGINGS (CONT'D)

time T.B.A. (after lunch)

Address is 8622 Pickens Gap Rd., Seymour. From Chapman Hwy., go west on Highland View Rd.; go to end of street; turn right. Church is around the curve on the right. Charles McKinney has requested that the Old Harp singers become a part of the 200 year celebration. It was agreed at Headrick Chapel that we would be glad to participate in a traditional-style Singing. What is proposed is that the Old Harp singers that show up at the Morning Service would sing 2-3 songs. A potluck will follow, with singing again at 1:30 P.M. The afternoon singing would be in the Fellowship Hall and in a traditional singing square.

The general location is 5-6 miles behind McGhee-Tyson Airport in Louisville, TN. (See map, below, and look for enlarged maps at singings prior to July 7.) The church is at 2729 Middle Settlements Rd. at the intersection of Miser Station Rd. The cemetery is next to the road. To reach the church, drive 50-75 yards downhill, either around or through the cemetery. For more information, call Charles McKinney (423) 982-4799 (days) or 984-1467 (home).

"Seek and ye shall find"

SINGING SCHOOL TEACHER WANTED

JOHN MCKEE, 15 KUSA CIRCLE, CHEROKEE VILLAGE, ARKANSAS 72529, (501) 257-4844, HAS BEEN IN CORRESPONDENCE WITH THE OLD HARP NEWSLETTER FOR A SINGING SCHOOL TEACHER TO COME INTO THEIR COMMUNITY AND TEACH THEM ABOUT HARP SINGING AND POSSIBLY TO GET THEM GOING ON THEIR OWN.

ON OLD HARP

I had two people tell me one Saturday this January that they were listening to National Public Radio, when they heard Peter Schickele on his program wondering aloud if he would be invited to participate at the Harp Singing he had just played of a singing in Alabama. I wrote to Peter and invited him to our singings and also called the Harp Singers in Minnesota to do a follow up on that comment.

The question is: who belongs at a Harp Singing? My personal belief is that if you show up, we are glad to have you. If you don't show up, we will miss you. There are no membership drives, dues, or attendance requirements. No one checks to see if you are a Methodist, Presbyterian, Baptist, Catholic, or Democrat. Only male or females are allowed to sing or lead a song of their choice. Usually only "young" people are asked to get up and lead a "lesson" before the "class." (Definition of a young person is anyone under 90 years of age, says Otha Henry, although this is not fixed, as John O. Clabo has led songs on and off for the past six years and he is 96, as I recall.)

The singing belongs to the traditional singers! This tradition is of the spirit. If one puts harp singing to the forefront of their life for the moment they are singing with us, they belong, as they enfold a part of the tradition around themselves.

*Comes let us use the grace divine,
And all with one accord,
In a perpetual covenant
Join ourselves to Christ the Lord.*

It is said that "The first shall be last, and the last shall be first." The bottom line is that the person walking in the door for the first time is as important to the tradition as those who have been to the singings since before they were born.

Bates Elliot, the last president of the Knox County Old Harp Singers, claimed that he only knew of good people that went to Old Harp Singings, and hoped he would meet them all again in Heaven ("but if there was those in Hell, it was those who sang too low and too slow").

—Larry Olszewski

AN ESSAY CONTEST

A Harp Singer is:

- Vocal
- Giving
- Inspirational
- ???
- Supportive
- Gracious
- Spiritual

I would like to offer a prize to the person who best describes what makes up a Harp Singer. The above words reflect some ideas, but are not pulled together. If you would like to try to do so, the deadline is New Year's Day 1997. The prize winner will be announced in the Spring 1997 issue and the prize will be presented by the Elders at that person's home, singing after reading of the essay.

Please send all items in care of this Newsletter to "Attn: Old Harp." Include your name, address, and group or harp singing tradition you identify with. All essays without a self-addressed stamped envelope will become property of the Old Harp Newsletter (Public Domain/author credit). (Note that the Old Harp Newsletter is archived in the National Archives.)

HARP & JUBILEE COMMUNITY ARTS

Does the Old Harp community want to officially become an affiliate of Jubilee Community Arts (JCA)?

For a number of years, JCA has allowed us to share their mailing address, has maintained our mailing list for us, and has given us some extra publicity throughout East Tennessee. But our relationship with JCA has remained an informal one. We have recently been asked if we would like to become an official affiliate of JCA.

If you are interested in finding out more, ask Larry or another JCA member about the benefits of affiliating with Jubilee Community Arts.
